Lomas Logistics Acquires Trans Canada Distribution

Lomas Logistics, a division of L.V. Lomas Limited has recently acquired Trans Canada Distribution Inc. ("Trans Canada").

Trans Canada Distribution Inc. is a provider of GMP compliant warehousing and distribution services. Handling the regulatory and compliance issues related to importing and distributing drug products, natural health products, active pharmaceutical ingredients (APIs) and medical devices. Trans Canada assists Canadian and foreign manufacturers to navigate the constantly evolving Health Canada regulations by providing cost-effective warehousing and fulfillment for regulated products.

Trans Canada Distribution Inc. is licensed by Health Canada to distribute pharmaceuticals, medical devices and natural health products. Trans Canada holds an Establishment License (for products bearing Drug Identification Numbers - DINs), a Natural Health Product Site License (for products bearing Natural Product Numbers - NPNs) and a Medical Device Establishment License.

Effective January 1, 2014, Trans Canada Distribution Inc. will be fully integrated into Lomas Logistics and will operate under the new name of Lomas Logistics Limited (www.lomaslogistics.com).

"I am really excited about the enhanced capabilities that this acquisition has given to Lomas Logistics in advancing our value proposition to customers in the healthcare/wellness space. Healthcare is an important vertical market for Lomas Logistics and this will help us continue to grow our market share in the Healthcare Logistics field in Canada in addition to the Importer of Record solutions we have with many US and European manufacturers." says Harry Smit, Vice President of Lomas Logistics.
